Terms and Conditions (Disclaimer):

- The Anna Templeton Centre and the Quidi Vidi Village Artisan Studios will do due diligence to ensure that the stockings are properly cared for. However, due to the nature of a public space, I understand that there are risks associated with displaying my stocking over the course of the exhibit. By submitting my stocking, I hereby release the Anna Templeton Centre, the Quidi Vidi Village Artisan Studios and the organizers of this project of any responsibility in relation to any damage or theft that may occur during the course of the exhibition and will not pursue any action against them.
- I certify that this stocking is either a) a traditional design, or b) an original design, and does not follow a published pattern (paid or otherwise).
- For those who live on the Avalon Peninsula and who will be responsible for dropping off/picking up their stockings: I understand that if my stocking is not picked up at the Quidi Vidi Village Artisan Studios by March 26th, 2024, they will be donated to a local charity.
- For those who live off the Avalon Peninsula: I understand that my stocking will be sent back to the regional centre that I delivered it to, and that it will be my responsibility to correspond with my regional centre to arrange for the pick-up of my stocking.
- I agree to these Terms and Conditions
